

NATALIE DOWGRAY

BVSc, MRCVS, MANZCVS (feline), PGDip IAWEL, PhD Candidate
Head of ISFM

Natalie graduated from Massey University in 2002, she started her feline career in 2010 working for Cats Protection and then the RVC in Feline Shelter Medicine. In 2012 Nathalie became a member of the Australian New Zealand College of Veterinary Scientists in feline medicine, going on to become a RCVS advanced practitioner in 2014 and completing a post-graduate diploma in international animal welfare ethics and law in 2016. Nathalie is currently completing her PhD in Feline Ageing with the University of Liverpool and started work with International Cat Care as Head of ISFM in August 2020.